

- You & your friends agreed on a meeting point, but they're always late?
Convince them to play Meep Race!
- + Realtime viewing of who will arrive the earliest?
 - + Level up and unlock items to slow your friends down next time?
 - + The earlier, the more XP?

- Idle Slayer + Geocaching
- + Everyday, you can hide a powerful item for someone in your area/your friends for free?
 - + If you liked the item, you can link up with them and your items get stronger & stronger the more stuff you hide for each other
 - + Enjoy a mobile Idle Slayer while having fun outside with your friends?

- Solve riddles with your partner?
- + Online matchmaking with 3 other people (2v2) & voice-chat
 - + Every Player has a unique set of rooms with items/riddles that can be connected with the partner's rooms
 - + It's easier to play with your friends in real life?

Solve riddles with your partner?

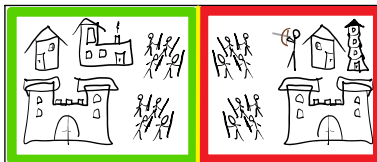

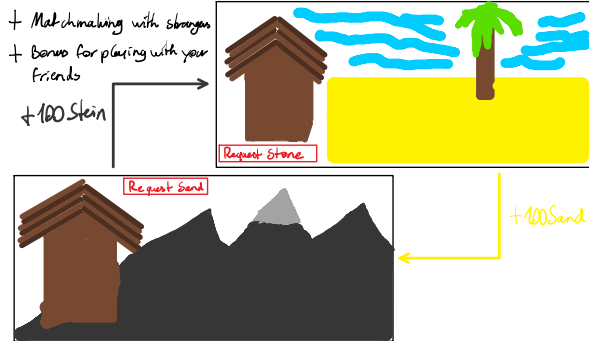

- + Each player has a limited view and needs to describe what they see
- + Online Matchmaking with voice-chat / trick the game by playing with your friends in real life
- + Difficulty changes with local weather (voice-chat crackles in a storm, etc)
- + The better you and your partner get, the harder the riddles?
- + If you performed well together, you're getting matched again soon more likely

- Tamagotchi
- + Everyday, your tamagotchi decides, where it wants to go today (Uni's, kindergarten, park, ...)
 - + All of these locations level a particular skill like intelligence, luck, etc...
 - + If you and your tamagotchi went there 5 times, it now knows the way to that spot and can train there on its own.
 - + Your tamagotchi needs (?) friends to survive
 - + You can make friends online but IRL friends are considered 'best friends' and spending time together in the same location satisfies your tamagotchi way more
 - + You can swap tamagotchis with a best friend for 3 days to get them to train in different locations

Tradui

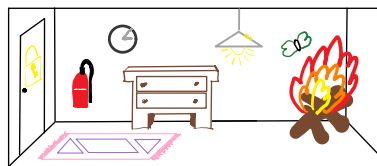

- + 2-4 players spawn in different environments like desert / mountains / ocean...
- + Everyone needs a little bit of each resource type like stone / water - to level up & get more advanced buildings
- + Resource-gathering is influenced by the local weather (more water at the ocean when it rains)
- + One Match lasts a week, after which all earned / traded resources & buildings get purged & converted to skill points for your buildings
- + For each trade, players level up their global friendship

Survive?

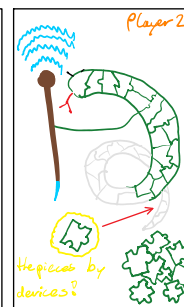

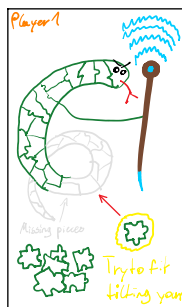

- + Build-up game, both players see the same thing
- + You need to build a few barracks & other military buildings to be able to defeat yourself after the border in the middle drops after 5 minutes
- + Goal is to possess all the area on the screen

- + Online matchmaking / play with friends
- + Every 2 minutes after the border drops, the player with the advantage will get annoyed by natural disasters based on the weather
- + Different troops & buildings based on the continent you live on

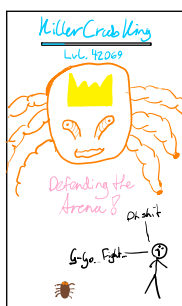

360° Escape Room

- + Move & look around by moving your phone / walking
- + Solve riddles, move things to climb them / see through
- + Get matched with strangers / play with your friends
- + Bonus: If you play in the same room, you will get 3D sound cues what object to use next
- + Gets harder by playing more with the same people

Summonsters

- + Get matched in 2 teams of equal size
- + Goal is to summon Monsters by puzzling them together
- + Select a puzzle and tilt your phone in the right angle and position, to put a piece into the monsters puzzle-silhouette
- + If a monster-puzzle is complete, it will be summoned and will make damage to the enemy monsters consistently, like a turret.
- + If the enemies last monster dies, your monsters will do damage to the enemies core-HP. If those are <=0, you win?
- + Team goals to attack other clans and get on top of the leaderboard?

Monster Arena

- + You can take one of your monsters to core travel with you and level up just by walking?
- + Main goal is to conquer & defend as many arenas as possible in your area, which spawn all important / big buildings like townhalls
- + Form a team with your friends or invite others to fight & build an empire with you and get bonus when fighting together?
